

Rule 9:

Capitalize the name of races and nationalities.

The english queen sat on her throne.

The English queen sat on her throne.

The italians are known for their pasta.

The Italians are known for their pasta.

Rule 10:

Capitalize the names of religions and the full names of churches.

st. anthony's of balboa is a church in Dudley.

St. Anthony's of Balboa is a church in Dudley.

Rule 11:

Capitalize the brand names of products.
Zachary's favorite kind of cookies are oreos.

Zachary's favorite kind of cookies are Oreos.

Her parents bought a general electric washing machine.

Her parents bought a General Electric
washing machine.

Rule 12:

Capitalize languages and school subjects followed by a number or letter. DO NOT capitalize the names of other school subjects.

The college student is enrolled in anatomy 101.

The college student is enrolled in Anatomy 101.

DO NOT CAPITALIZE:

We have math class at 12:00 PM.

Rule 13:

Capitalize words that show family relationship when they are used instead of a person's name or as part of their name.

uncle Peter is a custodian.

Uncle Peter is a custodian.

DO NOT CAPITALIZE:

My uncle lives in Massachusetts.

Rule 14:

Capitalize all of the main words in the titles of movies, books and stories.

Andrew Clements is the author of the book frindle.

Andrew Clements is the author of the book Frinkle.

Taylor Swift sings the song, “we are never ever getting back together again.”

Taylor Swift sings the song, “We Are Never Ever Getting Back Together Again.”