

Civil Rights Movement (Part 2)

24th Amendment

- _____ poll taxes in federal elections, but not state
- Blacks still had _____ voting
- Between June and October in 1964, 24 African American businesses and churches were destroyed in Mississippi
- MLK: new law needed, staged another _____

The Selma to Montgomery March

- In Selma, blacks the majority, but only ___% _____ to vote
- King "We're not asking, we're demanding the ballot"
- King and 2,000+ arrested on the 54 mile march to vote
- _____ pursued, African Americans beaten with clubs
- "_____:" Demonstrators approached a bridge to kneel and pray, they were beaten by 200 State Troopers in full view of camera
- 70 were injured and hospitalized

Voting Rights Act of 1965

- Authorized the Attorney General to send Federal Examiner to _____ qualified voters
- _____ more _____ tests
- By the end of the year, _____ African Americans were registered
- More black leaders, _____ point in movement

Black Power

- _____ with the non-violent movement, young African Americans called for black power
- Black Power: Should _____ the social, political and economic direction of their struggle
- _____ in black culture: racial tension rather than cultural assimilation
- Afros and African-style clothing

Malcom X

- Became _____ of black power movement
- Joined Nation of Islam: preached black _____
- Believed in _____: blacks should separate themselves from whites and form self-governing communities
- Advocated for self-defense, _____ when necessary
- Went to Mecca in Saudi Arabia
- Saw _____ races worshipping together, concluded that an _____ society was possible
- Broke away from the Nation of Islam, criticized them
- _____ by 3 members of the Nation of Islam in 1965

Black Panthers

- Malcom X's ideas _____ a new generation of militant African American leaders
- Huey Newton and Bobby Seale organized the Black Panther Party for self-defense
- Believed in black power, black nationalism and economic self-sufficiency
- Recruited members from poor _____ communities
- Believed that a _____ was necessary to grant them equal rights

Assassination of MLK

- MLK went to _____ in March of 1968 to strike for sanitation workers
- Wanted to lobby the federal govt. to commit billions of dollars to ending poverty and unemployment
- April 4, _____ by sniper James Earl Ray, who shot him while MLK was on the balcony of his hotel room

Civil rights bill of 1968

- Contained a _____ housing provision outlawing _____ in housing sales and rentals

Summary:
