

Election Project Posters/Flyers

- ▶ Projects are due on Monday, October 24th
 - ▶ You will have all period on Monday to be able to work on your projects.
- ▶ Remember you need the following:
 - ▶ 1 campaign poster (2 copies)
 - ▶ Must be 11x17. You'll need to go to Staples or Office Depot to print it.
 - ▶ 1 Informational Flyer (2 copies)
 - ▶ Size of a regular computer paper
 - ▶ 1 informational Flyer (2 copies)
 - ▶ Size of a regular computer paper
- ▶ Your informational flyers should have different information. If you want you CAN make one an attack flyer i.e. why you shouldn't vote for the other candidate or the other side of the proposition, but you are not required to. Having two positive flyers with vote _____ is fine too.
- ▶ Your campaign posters and flyers are NOT being turned in on Canvas. When you walk in the door on Tuesday, October 25th, you will turn these into me first thing.

Election Project Posters/Flyers

- ▶ Your posters and flyers need to be PROFESSIONAL. Please make sure you are checking grammar, capitalization, punctuation, etc.
 - ▶ Example: vote for my dude, Ap. He a real one.
 - ▶ Example: vote no on proposition 39.
 - ▶ Example: Vote John Smith, For a Better California.
 - ▶ Example: Vote Yes on Proposition 77.
- ▶ I have already looked at a couple of flyers and given feedback. If you would like me to give your feedback, I am happy to do so.
 - ▶ Please don't email me Monday at 9p.m. asking 'is this good?' You need to be and should be ahead on this.

Election Project Speech

- ▶ Your speech MUST be submitted into Canvas by 11:59p.m. on Monday, October 24th.
 - ▶ It MUST be submitted as a word document. NO PICTURES!
 - ▶ Your speeches are being ran through Turnitin.com, a plagiarism site. If your speech gets copied and pasted, it is a ZERO.
 - ▶ If working in a group, have only one group member submit the speech.
- ▶ Any person or group that DOES NOT submit their speech through Canvas by the deadline will receive an automatic zero for the speech portion of this assignment.
 - ▶ Yes, that means you CAN still earn points for your flyers and campaign posters.

Election Project Speech

- ▶ Your speeches need to be two minutes long. Typed, you're looking at a page and a half to two pages, double spaced.
 - ▶ Talk in 3rd person. You're advocating as to why we should vote for your candidate or side of the proposition.
- ▶ If you have a candidate, do the following:
 - ▶ Introduce your candidate and who they are/what they are running for
 - ▶ Talk about the job they are running for and why they would be a good fit
 - ▶ Mention their qualifications and why we should vote for them
 - ▶ You could mention why the other candidate would not be a good fit
- ▶ If you have a proposition, do the following:
 - ▶ Explain what your proposition is and what voting yes/no would mean
 - ▶ Why we should vote yes/no on your proposition
 - ▶ What it would do for Californians/what the benefit is
 - ▶ Why the other side is bad for Californians
- ▶ Remember, in all of your speeches, be passionate, be informative

Election Project Presentations

- ▶ On Tuesday, October 25th, we will begin Election Project presentations.
 - ▶ Each group will showcase their flyers and campaign posters/introduce their slogan.
 - ▶ Each group will read their entire speech
 - ▶ Presentations should end Wednesday
- ▶ Beginning November 1st, you will see many of your campaign posters/flyers around school to prepare for the mock election on Tuesday, November 8th.
- ▶ As a reminder, NO LATE PROJECTS WILL BE ACCEPTED!
 - ▶ I.e. you better be here on Tuesday, October 25th to turn in your campaign posters and flyers and should have submitted your speech into Canvas by the October 24th deadline.
