

U.S. History, Semester 2, Final Study Guide

Question	Answer
What is the difference between Escobedo v Illinois and Gideon v Wainwright ?
What was the Bay of Pigs? Why was it a disaster for Kennedy?
Explain the Watergate Scandal. What ended up happening with Nixon?
What were some ways people of color were being kept from voting?
What case overturned Plessy v Ferguson ?
What was the Truman Doctrine? How did it influence the Cold War?
Why were Japanese Americans interned in the U.S.? What officially interned Japanese Americans in the United States?

Even as a student in high school, you still have a right to free speech. What case supports your right to free speech?
What was Détente? Why was it significant?
What freedoms were mentioned by FDR in his 4 Freedoms Speech?
What woman or character encouraged women to go to work during WWII?
What was the Cuban Missile Crisis? How did it end?
What is consumerism?
By 1971, American money was no longer backed by what?
This city proved to be a point of contention throughout WWII, including a blockade/airlift as well as a wall being built.
Being a drug addict is not a crime and being thrown in prison is considered cruel and unusual punishment.
How was the U.S. able to get more men for the Vietnam War?
What happened to JFK?
What was the Griswold v. Connecticut case?

What were some tactics used by the Vietcong during the Vietnam War?
Who was Martin Luther King Jr.? What did he believe in?
What was the significance of the Loving v Virginia case?
Where did the Iranian Hostage Crisis take place? When were the hostages released?
What was the expectation of women during the 1950s? How was it different compared to the 40s?
What is stagflation? Why was it significant to the 70s?
What were the two main goals of the Civil Rights Movement?
After WWII, how did family life change? Where did people move to and where from?
Who was Rosa Parks? What did she do/what did she spark?
One Man, One Vote was decided upon in?

What was CORE? What strategy did they use during the Civil Rights Movement?
What was Johnson's Great Society?
Where did the term 'Miranda Rights' come from?
Freedom of the Press is protected because of?
Who was Thurgood Marshall? Why was he significant to the Civil Rights Movement?
What was Vietnamization? How was this significant to Nixon?
Even if you and I were both Christian, I cannot force you to pray in school.
What was the U.S. at the start of WWII?
What is the significance of the Mapp v Ohio case?
Nixon was supposed to end the Vietnam War, but he ended up expanding the war for a time. Where did the war expand to?
Where did Korea split before and after the war?

How did WWII start for the United States?
Who was Emmitt Till? Why was his case significant?
Why were the debates between Nixon and Kennedy significant in 1960?
Who was Robert Oppenheimer? What was he in charge of/what did he create?
What are some important aspects of 80s culture? Name some creations/inventions.
Explain the importance of Ronald Regan and conservatism.	